EXTREM BAYARD OF HANCOCK will be not stop until the last vestige of power in the Government is stripped from those who acceptable to the anti-Randall Democrats of Pennsylvania, for Randall is accepted in that State as the pernicious embodiment armed rebellion. A halt will not be called of Tildenism. But the trouble is that Senator Wallace, the acknowledged leader of armed representatives to the front to crush the anti-Tilden-Randall faction, is unable to decide which one of the two he can the Republican banner, and stand as they hest afford to support. Hancock has got did then, in solid phalanx, in hostility to a little bar'l, soto speak-a keg, as it wereand is the richest man in the army, while BAYARD is really a poor man in this world's goods. The chances are, therefore, in favor of HANCOCK.

MR. LOUIS A. WILTZ, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Louisiana, has abruptly declined the offer of his Republican opponent, Mr. TAYLOR BEATTIE, to make a joint canvass of the State. The real reason for this declination is that WHITZ does not rely upon the civilized agencies of a fair canvass for success, and that he proposes to substitute hull-dozing and fraud for reasonable discussion of the pending issues. In any other community than Louisiana or the South generally these facts would insure Mr. WILIZ an ignominious defeat.

THE boom started by himself from his seat on the bench of the Supreme court by Justice Firth has awakened the echoes of the political horizon; but those responses, always correct and natural, are not exactly complimentary to the boomer. The impression prevails that he has prostituted his high judicial office to the basest perof centralizing upon himself the denuncia- plaglarism in the introduction of sentition of nearly every respectable and lawbeen looking after.

A SPIRITED canvass is being made by the Republicans in Maryland, and if they do not carry the State, as the more sangnine of them believe they may, they will certainly poll a larger Republican vote than ever before.
